Applications are invited for the following full-time position in the Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health:

Research Assistant/Associate: Social Connectedness and Health

The Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health (SSHSPH) at the National University of Singapore (NUS) is seeking a research assistant/associate for the project of social connectedness and health in ageing populations in Singapore. The successful applicant will have a strong social-behavioural science background (e.g., statistics, psychology, sociology, or epidemiology), show good initiative in troubleshooting tasks and have excellent communication skills.

Responsibilities:

- Lead quantitative and qualitative (mostly qualitative) data collection
- Support research projects through data extraction, cleaning, and analysis
- Collaborate on the projects with NGOs
- Conduct preliminary data analysis and assist in advanced data analysis
- Assist in writing papers and grant reports (RA will have opportunities to present the study at conferences and be involved as a co-author in publications)
- Assist the Principal Investigator with other day-to-day tasks (e.g., ethic approval, etc.)

Requirements:

- At least a Bachelor degree in Social Sciences (sociology, psychology, public health, etc). Master degree in the field is preferred.
- Experience in conducting community survey research
- Knowledge of social network analysis (UNICET, etc.) is preferred.
- Knowledge of statistical software (SPSS, STATA, SAS, or R)
- Interests in working with the elderly populations
- Self-motivated, independent learner and detail-oriented.
- Good project management skill
- Fluency in English and good writing skills are essential.

Recruitment is open immediately. The grade of appointment will be accorded based on candidate’s academic qualifications and years of relevant experience.

To apply, please email the following documents to Dr Yi Huso at ephyh@nus.edu.sg:

1. Cover letter highlighting career goals and relevant experience
2. Curriculum Vitae, containing details of two named referees
3. A complete NUS Personal Data Consent for Job Applicants (form is available at NUS Personal Data Consent for Job Applicants)

Please note that only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.