

HTA Policy Symposium Agenda

TIME	AGENDA	KEY CONTENTS	APPROACH	SPEAKERS
Day 3 (9 Jan 2020)
8:45am – 9:00am	Introduction to policy symposium	Overview of program of the day	15 mins	MC
9:00am – 9:30am	Political economy of UHC	Why do we need to care about politics? What is a political dimension in UHC? Who are key stakeholders involved and how important do they do in shaping UHC governance and policy in Thailand? How these experiences may be relevant in other countries?	30 mins of ted talk	Suwit Wibulpolprasert NHSO board members
9:30am – 11:00am	Demand and supply of HTA in Asia	What is the need for evidence-inform health technology introduction in Japan, Korea, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand? How do these governments demand for HTA? What are the current capacity and process in conducting HTA in order to respond to the need and demand? What have been the impacts of using HTA in these countries?	75 mins of lecture with 15 mins of Q&A	Moderator: Anna Melissa Guerrero Speakers: Ryota Nakamura, Jeonghoon Ahn, Wee Hwee Lin, Wanrudee Isaranuwachai
11:00am – 11:30am	Tea Break
11:30am – 12:45pm	The role of HTA in managing high-cost healthcare services under UHC: policy challenges	What is the current uptake of high-cost health technologies, such as cancer drugs, advance biotechnology, robotic machines, in Japan, Korea, the Philippines and Thailand? What is the current policy in managing these high-cost services under their national health insurance? What are	60 mins of lecture with 15 mins of Q&A	Moderator: Teo Yik Ying Speakers: Ryota Nakamura, Ahn Jeonghoon, XXX,

		the roles HTA in informing policy development, implementation and evaluation of the use of these high-cost health technologies?		Suwit Wibulpolprasert
12:45pm – 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm – 3:15pm	Assessing non-economic impact of introducing health technologies: methodological challenges	How important does non-economic impact of health technology in public health policy in Korea, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand? How the non-economic impact can be measured to inform policy development and implementation. What is the future trend in using non-economic impact in HTA to inform policy?	60 mins of lecture with 15 mins of Q&A	Moderator: Anna Melissa Guerrero Speakers: Ahn Jeonghoon , XXX, Wee Hwee Lin, Saudamini Dabak
3.15pm – 3:45pm	Tea Break
3:45pm – 5:00pm	Patient engagement in HTA and UHC policy development: process challenges	How various groups of stakeholders can play part in policy process of HTA and UHC reform in Japan, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand? What kind of support do different groups of stakeholders need in order to ensure their full participation in the process? What are the current challenges in getting them in the policy process and how to overcome such challenges?	60 mins of lecture with 15 mins of Q&A	Moderator: xxx Speakers: Ryota Nakamura, XXX, Wee Hwee Lin, Waranya Rattanavipapong
5:00pm – 5:30pm	Wrap up session	What do we learn from this policy symposium? What should be done to enhance impact of HTA and UHC in the region? What should be done in order to avoid the repeated mistakes?	30 mins	XXX Suwit Wibulpolprasert Teo Yik Ying

xxx = local speakers/moderator